the first of the three main branches of the tree of life the animal kingdom the plant kingdom and the kingdom of fungi the animal kingdom is the largest and most diverse of the three it includes all the animals that we know and many that we do not the plant kingdom is the second largest and most diverse it includes all the plants that we know and many that we do not the kingdom of fungi is the smallest and least diverse
the fungi that we know
the animal kingdom is the most complex of the three it includes all the animals that we know and many that we do not the plant kingdom is the second most complex of the three it includes all the plants that we know and many that we

Table 1. Summary of the data collected during the field study. The table is organized into three main sections: 'General Information', 'Participant Characteristics', and 'Study Design'. Each section contains several rows of data, including names, dates, and numerical values. The text is somewhat blurry, but the structure is clear.
